

June 1st, 2023

Hon. Scott S. Harris, Clerk
Supreme Court of the United States
One First Street
Washington, D.C. 20543

Re: Brown v. United States, No. 22-6389
Jackson v. United States, No. 22-6640 (consolidated)

Dear Mr. Harris:

We represent Petitioners in the above-captioned cases. On May 15, 2023, the Court granted the petitions for a writ of certiorari and consolidated the cases. Under the Court's rules, Petitioners' opening briefs on the merits are currently due on June 29, 2023. On behalf of the parties on both sides in both cases, we respectfully request that Petitioners' time to file their opening briefs and joint appendices be extended to July 12, 2023. We further request that Respondent's time to file its brief(s) be extended to August 21, 2023.

Counsel for all parties consent to these extensions of time.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Jeffrey T. Green
Counsel for Petitioner Brown

/s/ Andrew L. Adler
Counsel for Petitioner Jackson

cc: Elizabeth B. Prelogar
Counsel for Respondent